The Paducah Carnival has been declared off.

If you move from one precinct to another after Sept. 7, you will lose your vote.

The Williamstown Courier is carrying the announcements of 39 candidates for office, subject to the action of the Democratic party of Grant county.

The Arkansas State election will come off next Monday. Jeff Davis will be elected Governor, as the Democratic ticket has no serious opposition.

H. L. Dodd, editor and proprietor of the Lake City, Fla., Reporter has bought the Citizen published in the same town, and his paper is now the Citizen-Reporter. Mr. Dodd is a son of the late Col. J. M. Dodd, long a newspaper publisher of this city.

Weaver, the alleged perjurer, came very near proving that the parties who testified against him were the perjurers at Georgetown on the 22nd. The case was continued on account of absent witnesses, until Sept 3, when Weaver promises to clear himself of the charge against him.

Caleb Powers complained bitterly in the anarchist organs because he was taken to Louisville in irons like any other criminal. When this high-toned convict reports for work at the Frankfort penitentiary, he will no doubt expect Eph Lillard to give him some job about as laborious as winding up an eight-day clock.

Last year the Third district gave Goebel 15,694, Taylor 17,515, Brown 1,519 and the Populist 387 votes. The Republican majority was 1,821 and combined with the Brown vote it would be 3,332. The Glasgow Times points out that there were 3,602 Bryan votes of 1896 not recorded for Goebel and figures that Rhea will get these votes, three-fourths of Brown's votes and all of the Populists. The Times says Rhea's vote will exceed 20,000, but there is a hard fight ahead.

The General Assembly is now in session, or will be today, and the Democrats of the State may consider themselves fortunate if they do not get the "hot end" of the attempt to tamper with the election law for campaign purposes. One thing is certain, no legislation can be enacted that is not acceptable to the Senate, a majority of which is hostile to the law under which the State has been redeemed. The law has stood the test of two congressional contests, one conducted by the Republican candidate for Governor himself as attorney, and it has stood the test of the courts from the lowest to the Supreme Court of the United States. With only one house in a position to legislate, we can hardly hope for amendments calculated to improve the present law. We do not believe the extra session was necessary and the call will prove to be a blunder in political management. The opponents of the law will be satisfied with nothing that is done by a Democratic caucus and the Democrats of the State will be demoralized and filled with disgust and resentment if the law is changed at the dictation of the assassins on the eve of the election. Now that the General Assembly is in session, there is but one course to pursue. The Democrats should adopt a caucus measure amending the law along the lines of the Johnson bill, correcting some of the defects of the law as seen by its friends, and if the amendments cannot be passed the earlier the session ends the better.

Akron, Ohio, half way between the home towns of Mark Hanna and Wm. McKinley, is the latest northern city to precipitate a riot by attempting to lynch a negro rapist. The negro escaped, but the mob burned $200,000 worth of property and several lives were lost, before the negro was hustled off to the penitentiary on a life sentence, after entering a plea of guilty and being given an immediate trial. Akron, Chicago, New York and Brooklyn, have all had experience with race troubles since the New Orleans riot.

Judge Cantrill overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Caleb Powers, one of the Republican conspirators, and ordered Powers removed to Louisville, fearing that his political friends would attempt to rescue him at Georgetown. The question of appeal will come up Sept. 8. The attorneys for Powers tried to consume time by asking for six weeks to prepare their appeal, but they were ruled down to ten days. Powers is now in jail in Louisville and is being lionized by the enemies of Gov. Goebel, who look upon his assassins as heroes.

H. H. McKinley, a cousin of the President, who lives in Harper county, Kansas, authorized this announcement: "I would rather vote this year for the Prince of Wales for President than for William McKinley. I will vote for Bryan, because I think his election is the only thing that can save the republic." He has been a Republican for 40 years.

A good many people wondered why Charles Denby, former Minister to China under Cleveland, was appointed on McKinley's Philippine commission last spring. It now turns out that Mr. Denby is for McKinley, and is no longer a Democrat. McKinley evidently knew his man, when he picked out Mr. Denby to represent the Democratic party on his commission.

The announcement that Hon. Chas. K. Wheeler would speak here Sept. 3 was premature. Mr. Wheeler will speak at Mayfield on that day. No speakers for Hopkinsville on the opening day next Monday have yet been announced, through the campaign committee will probably have some good speakers on hand.

The Democratic county committee has called a primary election for Nov. 6, to nominate a ticket for 1901, in Calloway county. There are already 23 candidates announced for the various county offices. J. A. Howlett is the only candidate for representative.

Congressman John S. Rhea was remonstrated for Congress at Bowling Green yesterday without ap position.

"One Hundred Years in the White House," opening the September Ladies' Home Journal, gives some highly interesting glimpses of the social life of the century, and of the home life of our Presidents since the time the Adamses moved into the Executive Mansion as its first occupants, in November, 1800. The "Romances of Some Southern Homes," in the same issue, pictures the most notable historic mansions of the South, and recalls the incidents which made them famous—their brave men and beautiful women. Some new anecdotes attract further attention to the beloved Phillips Brooks, as a man and as a preacher. They are characteristic and exceedingly well told. Anticipating the rather radical change that fashion has decreed in women's attire ten special articles are devoted to the fall and winter modes. The pictorial features of the September Journal include a page drawing of "Loiterers at the Railroad Station," as A. B. Frost sees them; "The Wonders of California Gardens," and the beauties of Yellowstone Park. There are numerous practical articles and much else that is helpful in the departments. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

The movement to have the Republicans endorse Wm. Lynch for congressman has assumed a very serious shape for Lije Seebree in this district. The District chairman and the county chairmen of five counties have issued a card recommending the endorsement of the Brown candidate in return for votes for Yerkes. The fate of the Henderson candidate, who has dared to oppose the ipse dixit of Broncho Franks, depends on the counties of Christian, Hopkins and Henderson.

FROM GRACEY.

Items of Interest Picked up in the Western Village.

Gracey, Ky., Aug. 27.—Mr. Luckett, of Clarksville, is putting up a large tobacco stemmery at this place. It will be ready for operations, this fall.

The I. C. Railroad company is building an addition to its freight depot, doubling its storage capacity.

The crops are suffering greatly for rain and the dust in the roads is several inches deep.

John Blakeley and Mr. Davis, two young men from Madisonville, arrived here on their wheels Sunday evening, having made the trip of 46 miles in a few hours.

Rev. I. N. Strother preached at West Union Sunday to a large crowd. The Little River Association will meet here next year.

One From Christian.

Gov. Beckham approved a commission of four persons as an Advisory Board to the State Agricultural Com'r. The commissioners are M. C. Leachman, of Washington county; Abram Renick, of Clark county; John F. Clardy, of Christian county, and Prof. M. A. Scovell, of the Lexington Agricultural Experiment Station.

Chinn's Shortage.

County Clerk Claude Chinn says he will place $11,000 in bank to cover the shortage due the State. Thomas H. Sprinkle, who represents Chinn's bondsmen, says he will not pay any more than the amount shown by his figures, and threatens to take the case into the Federal courts, claiming that Chinn's bond was not properly recorded. The State Inspector claims a shortage of $12,000 exists.

Latest Chinese Advices.

The situation at Peking is said to be unchanged. The imperial city has not been occupied, the allies refraining from aggressive action pending instructions from their governments. The report of the capture of the Chinese Emperor is said to be erroneous. It is believed that the Empress Dowager will not be pursued. There is danger of a famine in Tien Tsin.

Former Pastor Preaches.

Rev. J. N. Prestridge preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning, to a very large congregation. Mr. Prestridge has lost none of his old popularity with the church to which he preached for several years.
